[From the Cincinnati Commercial.]

A SENATOR THAT HAS GOT RICH.

I look across the street and see in front of a Senator's house the carriage of another Senator. The pair of blooded horses cost some thousand dollars. The harness is in keeping. The close, handsome, shining coach is one of Brenton's best, lined with silk velvet, and graced with the choicest and thickest of plate glass. On the coachman's seat sit two of God's creatures called men, one a bright mulatto, the other a white man, and both in livery. They sit in solemn silence under their gay robe of furs and white gloves. Directly the door of the house opens, and two ladies carrying a poor man's fortune on their backs descend the steps. The footman swings down and opens the door with an easy grace the master cannot imitate. The door closes with a bang, the footman mounts, and the coach rolls away. Well it seems but yesterday that the owner of all this came here a poor man.

We remember the fairy tale where the old witch touched the pumpkin and turned it into a coach, and touched the rats and turned them into horses. And so the ugly witch of the lobby touched the poor man, and out of fraud came the coach, and out of theft came the horses, and out of swindle drives, and stealings oil and burnish.—Like that wi ch I could touch that man with this delicate little pen of mine, and carriage and horses, coachmen and footmen, would all disappear. For honor and honesty would claim their own, and the very clothes would fall from the backs of wife and daughters. DON PIATTE.

HOLD HIM.

A sage-brush editor in Nevada, upon taking charge of a newspaper recently, laid down the law in the following style, that his editorial brethren might govern themselves accordingly: "A single word by way of introduction to the members of the editorial brotherhood, with whom I shall hereafter claim fellowship, and I have done. My head measures just twenty-three and a half inches, and I wear number twelve boots—two significant facts that it would be well to note. I am just six feet high, spare built, and weigh one hundred and sixteen pounds—fighting weight. I have no running weight—never run. Temperament, nervo sanguinus, but little of the n rvo, but much of the sanguinary. I recognize the binding obligations of the code duello, and if any of my brothers of the editorial persuasion should call me a liar, scoundrel, road-agent, Black Republican or thief, I will beg to differ with him, and politely ask him to furnish his proof, (which I will not be anxious he should do) and failing he must expect to fight. With rifles or pistols I am a dead shot, and am now practising the sword exercise. I never shoot a political adversary, but I scalp him—been so long on the border it comes natural. The summit of my ambition now is to have the editorial sanctum of the Humboldt Register gorgeously decorated with Radical scalps—immaterial as to color or texture—black, auburn, tan or kinkey will do."

The Legislature of the State of Delaware have elected to the United States Senate the two Bayards, father and son—the father to fill the unexpired term of Gov. Saulsbury; the son to succeed the father. There has never, we believe, been a case precisely similar to this in the history of the country.—There were two Dodges in the Senate at the same time—father and son—but one represented the State of Wisco sin, and the other the State of Iowa. In this instance the father and son are elected by the same Legislative body to represent the same State. What is still more remarkable is that the immediate ancestor of the Bayards—the father of the present Senator—was likewise a member of the Senate; and his elder son, Richard H. Bayard, who died within twelve months, served in the U. S. Senate at intervals from 1836 to 1845. Thus there have been four Senators in this one family, representing the State of Delaware. The youngest of the line, Thomas F. Bayard, who takes his place next March, is said to be an eminent lawyer, and to possess capacity and acquirements reflecting credit on the distinguished family of which he is a member.

THE SIAMESE TWINS AND THE PROPOSED SEPARATION.—An English paper says:

"The object which Chang and Eng, otherwise known as the Siamese Twins, had in view in visiting Edinburgh was to obtain the advice of Professor Syme as to the advisability of severing the inter-communicating band by which they have been so long held together. Last week Chang and Eng waited on Professor Syme at the University for this purpose. After a careful examination, Professor Syme was strongly of opinion that such an operation would prove highly dangerous to their lives, and accordingly advised that the operation should not be performed. Sir James Y. Simpson, Bart., also entertains the same view, and the opinions of the two learned Professors may, we think, be taken as conclusive evidence on this hitherto debated point. It is intended, however, to take the opinion of a Paris Professor on the subject; but, doubtless, the opinions of the two Northern professors will have considerable weight with the twin brothers in whatever course they may ultimately adopt.

A new and very dangerous "infernal" machine has been invented and "successfully" tried in San Francisco. A street car partially filled with passengers was thrown violently from the track one evening. All inside supposed at first that it was another earthquake. A search for the cause of the disturbance revealed an exploded torpedo firmly fastened to the rail of the track. In general appearance it resembles an old-fashioned watch, being about two inches in diameter and five-sixths of an inch in thickness. It was composed of Russia sheet-iron, with two strong clasps of lead, by which it was secured to the rail of the track. Fixed in the interior of the torpedo and nearly reaching its upper surface were three gun nipples soldered to the lower plate. They were armed with ordinary percussion caps, and were exploded by the car wheels passing over them. The machine was filled of course with some powerful explosive mixture. The whole affair is shrouded in mystery. The object aimed at was no doubt to see what an explosion of that character directly under the wheel of a car would effect. The reckless caring which prompted the inventor to give it a trial in the very heart of the city points indirectly to the probable use to which others of a larger calibre may be put.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. F. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary
DANIEL AYRES, M. D. LL.D.....Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

BILLIARD SALOON

IN THE SOUTH.

THIS SALOON has been newly fitted in a style not equalled by any in the whole United States, as regards elegance and completeness.

THE BILLIARD SALOON

contains two new Tables from the celebrated Manufactory of Phelan & Collends, which are universally acknowledged to be the best tables in the country. All things pertaining to a first-class Billiard Saloon will be found here.

THE RESTAURANT

is under the supervision of one of the best cooks in the Southern States, and the cooking at this establishment cannot be surpassed in any city.

All the delicacies of the season will be found in the larder, while an ample supply of live birds is always on hand. Elegant Dinners and Suppers for parties, gotten up in the best style at short notice.

THE BAR

contains the finest assortment of Wines Liquors and Segars ever brought into the State, and in variety equals that of any bar in the country.

The public will always find polite and attentive bar-keepers to administer to their wants. Of the truth of these statements our large and steadily increasing patronage is the strongest testimony.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. ST JOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Polices at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies,

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient, to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid as cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of the ratios—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:
Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In the organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

MISCELLANEOUS

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any stove or Range, in any boiler, and the Low Price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the coarsest blankets. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be replaced in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.

DESPOTISM OF RECONSTRUCTION.

The following letter from Gov. Worth to President Johnson, discusses a question of veracity between the Governor and Gen. Canby. Holden is the only white native in the State who would hesitate for one moment to believe Gov. Worth—when contradicted by Gen. Canby.

The letter will increase the admiration and respect which the whole people of the State feel toward that sterling old patriot and honest man; while it will, at the same time, increase their detestation for the system of party and military despotism known as Reconstruction.

When the history of Reconstruction is written, and thoroughly exposed, and understood, the lovers of civil liberty and Constitutional freedom, both North and South, will have cause to mourn over its follies, crimes and madness.

Extract from Gov. Worth's letter to the President, dated Dec. 31st, 1867.

AS TO THE PERQUIMANS PRISONERS.

Gen. Canby in his letter to Gen. Grant, professes to find in my action in this case, just ground for imputing to me "disingenuousness." Let the record facts decide to which of us "disingenuousness," a quality disreputable to anybody, particularly to a veteran General, justly attaches.

In September last, a petition was sent me from Chowan County (a copy is annexed marked A,) from a number of citizens whose representations were entitled to as much respect as would be due to any like number of citizens anywhere. I call your special attention to it. The history of the case rested on documentary proofs, unmistakably exhibits the spirit of the military dynasty under which we live.

A white man named Pratt had shot a negro. I forbear to encumber this communication with the alleged circumstances of provocation tending to justify or mitigate the act. The negro lingered for some time. When it was ascertained he was likely to die, I am credibly informed that Pratt voluntarily surrendered himself to the civil authorities of Chowan, where the alleged crime was committed, courting investigation into the circumstances. After the negro died, the civil authorities thought proper, besides keeping Pratt in jail, to put irons on him. A disguised crowd, in the night time, forced the jailer to surrender the keys and liberated the prisoner. No one of the crowd has been identified. Upon a representation of these facts to me, I immediately issued a proclamation offering a reward from our poor State Treasury for the apprehension of Pratt. Up to this, neither jaundiced prejudice nor radical malevolence had imputed default to the civil authorities but a military detective emissary is sent from Charleston, by whose action six orderly citizens from the adjacent county of Perquimans, to-wit: Whitaker Myers, James Harrell, William White Sr., Isaac White, and William White Jr., are arrested, and without any known evidence, then or since, are dragged from their homes and detained as military prisoners for some two months, and put to work on the streets, &c., not informed of the charges preferred against them, or allowed to confront their accusers.

In reply to this petition, and my remonstrance enclosing it to Gen. Canby, (see copy of this remonstrance marked Q) Gen. Canby says, (see exhibit marked R.) "that detectives were sent upon the trace of the guilty parties, who succeeded in ferriting them out, and they were arrested and turned over to the commanding officer at Plymouth, N. C. (not Fort Macon, as stated in his letter to Gen. Grant,) until the civil authorities could try them. The commanding officer of the post was authorized to take bail for them if it should be offered. I see no ground for complaint in the fact that persons charged with crime have been arrested by the military authorities, and held in custody until the civil authorities are prepared to try them."

If these detectives found any evidence implicating these parties, and they were acting in aid of the civil authorities, why was not this evidence disclosed to the civil authorities for their action? Or why, after the arrest, were they carried to Plymouth, —detained some two months as military prisoners, no civil officer being informed of the pretended evidence, or called upon to issue process, and cause this evidence to be heard, and the accused allowed to confront their accusers? The friends of the accused, as I am credibly informed, went to Plymouth and asked to become bail for them. They could have given bail in any penalty, reasonable or unreasonable. Bail was refused. After some two months detention, they were released, as I learn, on their own, or recognizance, to appear at Plymouth whenever required by the military authority. In order to procure authentic information as to this release, I have recently, through a friend, asked of the military officer in command at Plymouth, a copy of the parole or recognizance, under which they were released. This officer replied, that the copy could not be furnished, because no written evidence of the parole or recognizance was kept.

Gen. Canby, in his letter to Gen. Grant, says in reference to this matter, "The arrests were made upon the application of the Sheriff of Chowan county, based upon the affidavits of the jailor and his wife as to the forcible rescue. The prisoners were sent to Fort Macon for safe keeping until the civil authorities were prepared to try them, and the commanding officer of that post was directed to admit them to bail if suitable bail was offered." He says my statement to him "is not an ingenuous statement. At the date of this statement the Governor had made but one remonstrance to me on this subject, and he knew by my letter of Sept. 17th, 1867, that in one of the cases cited in that remonstrance, the arrests were made at the requests of his own agents and in aid of the civil authorities;" and he makes this the occasion to refer to the "comity" to the civil authorities, which he had acted on years long gone by before the late war. I beg you to recur to the copy of that letter of 17th of Sept., 1867. He asserts that I knew from that letter that the arrests were made at the instance of my agents. No such pretence is insinuated in his letter of Sept. 17th, nor had I ever heard of any such pretence until I read this groundless imputation upon me, in his letter to General Grant. From a recent letter from the Sheriff of Chowan, now before me, covering a copy of the affidavit of the jailor, I am warranted in saying not only that I knew nothing leading me to suppose the arrest had been made at the instance of my agents, but that the assertion is without color of foundation. The Sheriff says the arrests were not made at his instance and that he has never heard of any evidence to implicate any of the accused; and the jailor, by his affidavit, swears nothing to create the suspicion, against any of them. And I am informed and believe, that the military detectives brought the accused before the jailor and his wife, neither of whom pretended to identify either of them.

The acts of Congress under which Gen. Canby is acting, warrant him in regarding me as his subordinate; and if I had anticipated the reference to Gen. Canby of my letter to you, I might not have deemed it proper to use the terms "insinuations" and "military despotism," but upon reflection, I am unable to perceive that they characterize too strongly, the acts to which they referred.

I am extremely averse to controversy, and if I could have found in the acts of our military commandants any of the possible statesmanship which has marked the conduct of Gen. Hancock, no jarring would have occurred; but I would much prefer peremptory dismissal from office, to silently acquiescing in what I regard as unnecessary, unwise and cruel military oppression.

I have the honor to be
Yours very respectfully,
JONATHAN WORTH,
Governor of N. C.

The respectable portion of the press of North Carolina, so far as we have seen, are of but one opinion relative to the action of the Senate towards Senator Robbins—they all believe as we do, that Mr. Robbins is being persecuted for opinion's sake—because he stubbornly refuses to bow the knee to Radicalism—and nothing else. Every man, with one ounce of common sense, who is acquainted with the public as well as the private character of Senator Robbins, will not hesitate for a moment in declaring him innocent of crime, or even of the perpetration of a meditated indiscretion. Radicalism itself, with all of its enormities, is not a unit against Mr. Robbins. Mr. Welker declared he knew of the transaction during the summer session, but, he did not even think it an indiscretion, much less a crime, and so little importance did he, Mr. Welker, attach to the transaction, that he gave it no thought at all.

Senator Wynne, is reported as having said, that it was no bribe—that if Mr. Robbins had been for sale, he could as easily have received $20,000 as $20. Remember these words of Messrs Welker and Wynne, men whose radicalism is above suspicion, and remember, too, that, if the vile hand that tendered the $20 meant it as a bribe, he is more guilty than the innocent, unsuspecting receiver.

We are far from screening corruption and bribery in any one, and would be the first to say, visit punishment upon a conservative, if found guilty, without stint or mercy; but, as we have said, we repeat, Senator Robbins is innocent of crime, inasmuch, as it was not meditated; and we believe the whole clan, who yelp at his heels, so think, but, to act differently, would not be in keeping with their creed—and to lose this opportunity to persecute a conservative member, would break a link in their systematised chain of visiting their wrath upon all who are not of their faith and order.

To-day, we suppose, the savage axe will be swung high in the air! Oh, it is a precious morsel for the hungry crew to feed upon! How they enjoy the feast! They lock arms, and dance around their victim with a savage glee, while Robbins, conscious of his innocence, looks down from his lofty stand, with a complacency that adds lustre to his fame. He tells them, he asks not for mercy! There is a sublimity in these words that carries conviction to every unprejudiced mind, that Senator Roobins is an innocent man.

But, what of Senator Sweet! The hate of his party is heated toward him, to a white degree. The sparks fly off in every direction, and the iron tongue of slander hisses through the columns of the pious Standard. The faithful followers of the "new civilization," have caucused over his failure to prove his assertions that "dollars and cents" had been paid for votes, and we are told, that already the executioner has been ordered to sharpen his blade for the bloody work of the guillotine! Rumors, as plenty as blackberries in summer, are rife, that Sweet, who dared to do right, is, too, to be punished. We shall see! He, too, conscious of his own rectitude, defies them! Let them dare vacate his seat—as they are said to have determined to do in caucus—and we hesitate not in saying, that his constituents will send him back with a vote of thanks.

No Name accompanied the following communication: If the Governor holds us to a strict accountability for it, as Senator Lassiter did for publishing his killdees, the author must avow himself. However, we will assume, that the Governor likes such truthful strictures upon his motives and acts, and therefore we publish without name, fear, or charges.

HOLDENISM.

The monkey-like effrontery of Holden, (and such) is beyond description. He did more to establish secession than any man in the State; preached it in season and out of season twenty years; run for the Convention pledging himself to sign it, got elected; signed, went into the war, boots and breeches, and yet, at the end of the war, we find this precious "lim cracit" sitting up helping to punish people for being just what he made them. He who ought to have been hung and no doubt expected to be hung, was so slippery, so cringing and fawning, so impudent too, that he, cat-like, catches on his feet, and ads as one of the victors, in punishing his own converts and followers.—This is not Talleyrandism, nor Judas Iscariotism, not Benedict Arnoldism. It is pure Holdenism.

Wilson Carey, colored, moved to adjourn, but withdrew his motion, when,

By consent Mr. McMillian, from the Committee on Private Bills, reported favorably upon the bill concerning the Inspectors of the city of Wilmington. Bill placed upon the Calendar.

Mr. Robinson moved that when the House adjourn, it adjourn until 10 o'clock to morrow morning. Carried.

On motion, the House then adjourned.

On Wednesday there died in Putnam, Ohio, a child aged 13 years, that was born without a spinal column, and during its existence never gave utterance to an articulate or audible sound. The Zanesville Signal, which makes the statement, adds:

It was, probably, one of the most remarkable instances of malformation on record, where animal life continued for so long a period, apparently in defiance of every known law of physiology.

MONEY NOT ACCOUNTED FOR.

N. L. Angier, State Treasurer, has made a report to the Legislature that requires an explanation from Gov. Bullock. The report was made in response to a resolution calling on the Treasurer for a statement of the amount of bonds that have been issued since he came into office, the amount of cash received into the Treasury from the sale or hypocation of said bonds, and the precise state of the account at present between the State of Georgia and the parties to whom the bonds were sold. In response to this resolution, the Treasurer says that up to the 23d of December last several issues of bonds have been made to the Fourth National Bank of New York, and said Bank had in several remittance s advanced large sums of money on them; that on the 23d ultimo he asked the Bank for a complete statement or account current between that institution and the State of Georgia, desiring to report the same to the Governor in his annual report; that the answer of the Bank, received on the 9th inst., was: "None of the new seven per cent. bonds have been sold, it being considered unadvisable to do so, in consultation betw en our President and Gov. Bullock, it being considered by many that the Legislature authorizing them was an illegal body." Mr. Angier continues:

"Besides crediting themselves in the account current with the various amounts, named above, they also took credit for a large amount which I did not know anything about, and which had never reached the Treasury. Not knowing how to account for these credits, I immediately started, on the eve of the 10th instant, for New York, to get a full explanation of them. Having arrived in New York, I proceeded to the Fourth National Bank, and found that Gov. Bullock had drawn drafts to the amount of thirty five thousand dollars ($35,000) (Copy of the drafts I give below) which amount has never been paid in nor reported to the Treasury by Governor Bullock."

The copies of the drafts, which the Treasurer published, show that they were drawn by Gov. Bullock and made payable to his own order, and their amounts to be charged to the State.

It would seem from this that the Governor went to the creditors of the State in New York, representing to them that the Legislature that authorized the bonds was an illegal body, and yet he drew from them a large amount of money not yet accounted for! Has he set up for himself as the sole legal representative of the State, or what else does his conduct signify?—Columbus, (Ga.) Enquirer.

THE GRAVE OF A YOUNG GIRL OPENED AND THE BODY DESPOILED OF CLOTHING AND JEWELRY.—The Belleville (Mo.) Democrat, January 20th, says:

On last Monday the remains of Miss Maggie McCarren, a lovely and interesting girl of eighteen, the only daughter and child of Mr. Edward McCarren, an old and highly esteemed citizen of this county, living near Mascoutah, were consigned to the grave.—The funeral took place about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Next day, about the same hour the grief-stricken parents paid a visit to the grave of their darling child to water it once with their tears. Judge of their feelings of horror to find that the grave had been tampered with and to allay the horrible suspicion that took shape and form in their minds the grave was re-opened, when it became apparent that the tomb had been ruthlessly invaded the night previous. The clothes in which their beloved daughter was buried had been stripped from her body, together with the ornaments upon her person, and carried away as booty. The body was in such a disarranged condition as to require to be re-dressed and re-interred. The anguish of the fond parents at this gross indignity and outrage cannot be described. We have learned that the distressed parents have caused the remains of their beloved child to be interred in the garden contiguous to their residence, where it is hoped she will be permitted to repose in peace. Mr. McCarren offers a reward of $1,000 for the capture of the authors of the outrage.

Col. Forney, who is making a tour through the Southern States, speaks approvingly of the temperance and sobriety of the people of North Carolina.—Exchange.

Goodness gracious! "Praise from Sir Hubert Stanley is praise indeed." The people of North Carolina should exalt their horns and sound a loud blast of self approval after that. If they can be temperate and sober while negro soldiers commit all sorts of outrages upon them, and scallawaggery keeps them in a too dismal condition to indulge in any other kind of waggery, they are undoubtedly entitled to be allowed to govern themselves according to the true intent of Republicanism. Perhaps Col. Forney's great influence will seek to impove their political condition up to a standard corresponding with their moral qualifications! Who knows?—N. Y. Express.

Fifty members of the Missouri Legislature are reported to favor an extension of the elective franchise to women. Women already have the veto power—a negative on men's wishes, with no two-thirds vote to overrule them. They have also control of the Treasury and the Department of the Interior, with equal power in the War office and the Post office.

They whip our children; dictate our dinners; decide when our shirts fit; take us to church; put out the lights and bar up at pleasure; scold our servants; subscribe our money; and set up to be a great deal better than we are. What do they want with a vote? The next step will be a she sheriff.

UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE AND UNIVERSAL AMNESTY.—The nearest approach to this platform which any prominent congressman has yet made was made by Mr. Bingham, of Ohio, on Wednesday, when he offered the following as an amendment of the Federal Constitution to be submitted by Congress for the action of the State Legislatures:

"No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge or to deny to any male citizen of the United States of sound mind and over twenty one years of age, the equal exercises of the elective franchise at all elections in the State wherein he shall have actually resided for a period of one year next preceding such election, except such of said citizens as shall hereafter engage in rebellion or insurrection, or who may have been or shall be duly convicted of treason or other crime shall of the grade of felony at common law."

ENVY.—Saith Socrates, descanting on envy coupled with malice: The greatest flood most sudden calm; the hottest love the coldest end; and from the deepest desire oftentimes ensues the deadliest hate. A wise man had rather be envied for providence, than pitied for prodigality. Revenge barketh only at the stars, and spite spurns at that she cannot reach. An envious man waxeth lean with the fatness of his neighbors. Envy is the daughter of pride, the author of murder and revenge, the beginner of secret sedition, and the perpetual tormentor of virtue. Envy is the filth of the soul; a venom, a poison or quick-liver which consumeth the flesh, and drieth up the marrow of the bones.

Importance of Life Insurance.

Read another forcible illustration of how the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY pays its losses:—

"Received, at Raleigh, N. C., Jan 29th, 1869 of S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Conn Mutual Life Ins Co., two thousand five hundred and forty-five dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 24,031, and dividend on the life of my late husband, ——, and I hereby surrender all my right, title and interest in the same to said Company.
(Signed) ——— ———, of Newbern, N. C."

We refrain from publishing the names of the parties, because we do not think it advisable to publish one's private business, but will state, although the party had not been insured quite five months, yet received a 50 per cent. dividend or $45 on the premium paid. The dividends of this Company have been larger than those of any other, averaging over 50 per cent. annually, from the beginning and the present dividend (Feb 1st, 1869,) exceeds the average. On this fortieth annual dividend the Directors have, besides declaring a 45 per cent. dividend upon the premium paid, declared a per centage dividend on the surplus reserve arising from interest which increases the policy holder's dividend annually, and on some policies pays over 70 per cent. this year. They have also adopted a reduced all-cash premium table, with immediate mutual dividends.

This company is purely mutual; there are no Stockholders to absorb its earnings. It offers abundant security in a large accumulated fund of over TWENTY-THREE MILLIONS DOLLARS, derived alone from its business, and has $154 assets, securely invested for every $100 of its liabilities.—Its plans of business comprise all the desirable forms of insurance.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but it also engenders in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Wealthy constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the rosiest cheek, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Scrofula, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing such obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abcess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose functions of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the agues districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles,

NEW ADVERTISEMENES.—New Brick Machine, &c.: Francis H. Smith & Co., Baltimore.

Importance of Life Insurance: S. D. Wait, Agent, &c., Raleigh.

Attachment in Gates—O. D. Savage, Justice of the Peace.

Hymans & Dancy, General Commission Merchants, New York and Norfolk.

Grocer and Commission Merchant: A. D Taylor, Raleigh.

THE WORK of pulling down the walls of the old Market House, commenced Saturday, and by to-morrow, it is likely the "last brick" will be lifted off the old concern.

There are but few of our citizens who are acquainted with the history of the building of the old market—where the former Market stood, and still farther back, where the first Market House, ever erected in the City of Raleigh, was located. In some future number of the Sentinel we propose to give our readers the history of these public buildings, which, we doubt not, will prove interesting. For instance, would you believe that the Market House once occupied the centre of Fayetteville Street, opposite Hargett?

THE TABLEAUX, for the benefit of the poor of the City, and Oak City Council, will take place next Tuesday evening, 9th instant, for one night only. The ladies return their thanks to Gen. Miles for the tender of his Band; also, to the Presidents of the North Carolina, and Raleigh & Gaston Railroads for the reduction of the fare on their respective roads, for that day.

The Students of Wake Forest, and the councils, are requested to attend. Only clubs of ten can come over the R & G. Road—ticket good for one day.

PROGRAMME.

The Goddess of Liberty; Grand Mother's Apples; Marrying for Riches; The Divorce of Josephine; The Proposal; Charade; Queen Tetana's Court; The Daring Lover; Cinderella at the Ball—three scenes; Oil is better for a Wig than Vinegar—Charade; Queen Esther; the Sculptor's Dream; Ellen Douglas—two scenes.

[INTERMISSION OF FIFTEEN MINUTES.]

Father Come Home—four Scenes; The Grecian Bend; The Death of Hinda; Sense vs. Sentiment—Charade; Clinging to the Cross; Visions of Margaretta; the Crown of Glory; The Light of the Harem; The Village Barber; The Bridal of Pocahuntas; Midsummer's Night Dream; Finished Business.

The ladies return many thanks to the gentlemen who have so liberally contributed in furtherance of the exhibition.

THE LITTLE CORPORAL for February has come. It is a pleasing monthly, and a great favorite with the juvenile population.

THE Tournament and Ball, at Weldon, has been postponed till the 4th of March.

MR. ATKINSON writes from Horgen, Switzerland, to the Editor of the Goldsboro' Messenger, under date of the 14th. ult., as follows:

"A few days after we arrived, we learned, to my great surprise, "that an infamous article had been extensively published in many of the Swiss papers, stating that the first lot of Immigrants which Mr. Trueb had carried off, (being the same now settled on my brother's plantations near Goldsboro,) were sold by him (Trueb) into slavery." This report certainly had a great discouraging effect on many who would no doubt emigrate. However, as soon as I learned this, I called on the Hon. C. A. Page, the United States Consul at Zurich, who very readily authorized us to use his name in our advertisements, and also offered to assist us in any way he could. I have been looking for your German paper very anxiously, and also for the Messenger, but as yet neither has arrived.

At this time we have about twenty families engaged, which we expect to forward, with all others we may get, by the first or middle of February.

* * * * * * *

Respectfully yours, &c.,
WM. F. ATKINSON.

THE LIVE GIRAFFE, the first number of which made its appearance in the city Monday morning, Edited by Frank Barnum, (not a nephew of P. T. Barnum,) is a lively paper, neat in typographical appearance, and promises well for the future. Frank says, if he had only thought of it, he might have gotten in the "ring," and secured as an endowment, about $10,000 of the Penitentiary money. That was a very hard kick for your Animal to make on his appearance before the people.

The price of the Giraffe is $2 per annum.

A juror in one of the Courts recently held in this City, was heard to say, after the adjournment of the Court, "I am so full of law that it is with great difficulty that I refrain from cheating somebody."

The watch owned by Maj Andre, the revolutionary spy, is now in the possession of an aged widow, residing in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, who wants to sell it. The name of Arnold, and the date 1774, are engraved on the back of the watch, and its maker was Thomas Campbell, of Albany, England.

THE NORTH CAROLINA LAND COMPANY.—The attention of our readers is especially called to the advertisement of this Company, which appears in our columns to day.—From what we can learn, this company is organized on a solid basis with an excellent charter. It is a movement in the right direction—the gentlemen under whose direction the company makes its debut, are well known in this State and at the North. The parties especially interested in its success at the North, are men of large means, and of high business standing; those in this State, are known for their reliability and business capacity; we, therefore, cordially commend the company to the consideration of the people.

The lands of North Carolina, unoccupied, are abundant, cheap and capable of a high state of cultivation. Our climate is not excelled by any other country, in many particulars, and its general healthfulness is unsurpassed. The average of life in North Carolina will compare favorably with any country in the world. Cotton, corn, wheat, tobacco, rice, irish and sweet potatoes, are grown well in various portions of the State. Sorghum or sugar cane, the grape, and fruits of all description, can be produced of the finest kind and in the greatest abundance; water power, and gold and copper mines, are abundant. It is precisely the country the enterprising industrious man, of small means, should seek, where his labor will at all times, meet with a full and adequate remuneration. Our schools, of all grades, are doing well, and steadily improving, and a more quiet, honest people, cannot be found on the continent. Demoralization, it is true, has followed the devastations of war, but, in this respect, North Carolina is really better off than most States, North or South.

This company proposes to sell and buy lands on the best terms, to encourage and promote immigration, to borrow money on mortgage, &c., and to furnish our planters with the most improved agricultural implements, machinery, fertilizers, &c.

Emigrants from any nation, who come to seek their fortunes, and make permanent homes with us, sober, industrious and honest people, will be hailed everywhere with cordiality. Good farmers, and those who understand the grape culture, and the manufacture of wine, are especially desired. The opening of our mines, and the establishment of factories, would open a field for miners, mechanics, &c. Let them come, bringing their families with them.

The Company has opened its office, and are ready to do business. Let the enterprise be encouraged.

FRANCIS T. KING, President; Allen Jay, Superintendent of Education, and Wm. A. Sampson, Superintendent of Agriculture, the officers of the "Association of Friends, in Baltimore," have been holding Educational and Agricultural meetings in our State with great success.

The one at Cane Creek, was attended by about 700 persons, and was an occasion of peculiar interest.

This Association is, at present, the only organized effort at the South, for the education of white children. It is a complete system and embraces a Normal School, and forty-two high and primary schools of high grade, with 3,000 pupils.

The agricultural department consists of a Model Farm, near High Point, 17 Agricultural Clubs, 500 members, and an attendance of 1500.

The distribution of clover seed has increased from 500 lbs. in 1866 to about 10 tons this year.

Our Quaker friends started this work for their own members, but they have generously opened it to others, who now receive two-thirds the benefit.

We are pleased to find that our friend, Dan'l. Worth, has opened one of these schools at Company Shops—a model one—and we hope his example will be followed by citizens of other parts of the State.

Why has not the Supreme Court of this State delivered an opinion on the Constitutionality or legality of the issue of $2,000,000 in State Bonds to the Chatham Railroad? The case was argued several weeks ago, and it don't look right to see the opinion withheld. Was the Court afraid of affecting recent appropriations?—Western Democrat.

The delay is certainly a mystery. We can hardly think that the Judges would withhold an opinion for the cause suggested by the Democrat—although, it looks in that direction.

The ship Anna Schmidt, which was destroyed by the Alabama off the coast of South America, had on board a quantity of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for California. Dr. Ayer & Co., now appeal for redress direct to the British Government, as the responsible party in this wicked business, and base their claim for payment and protection on the ground of humanity, as their commodoties are wholly for the sick. Their point is well taken, and will doubtless be pressed with the pluck and persistency which characterize the operations of these celebrated chemists.—Baltimore Clipper.

SPOKE AND HANDLE FACTORY.—We design from time to time to give our readers an insight into the many industrial and manufacturing enterprises of this place and vicinity. The establishment of Messrs. Snow & Co., in the eastern part of town is well worthy of an extended notice. The principal timber used is hickory, and the process of manufacturing is very interesting. Everything is performed by machinery from the cross cut sawing of the logs to the finest emory polish. The establishment works 25 hands and turns out daily 1100 axe or pick handles, which for durability and finish have no superior in the world.—These handles are principally shipped, at present, to Australia and California, although some local trade is supplied.

This new enterprise has opened up a market for the forests of hickory timber that has hitherto been of no marketable value except for firewood, and the great bulk of it too large even for that.—Greensboro Times.

PROFESSOR MORSE AND THE TELEGRAPH.

Mr. Editor:—The facts and authorities quoted by your correspondent, "G. W." (Sentinel, 26th ult.,) in his letter on the origin of the magnetic Telegraph certainly furnish fair ground for impugning the claim of Prof. Morse to the claim of having discovered that wonderful invention, which is destined in a few years to "put a girdle round the globe in forty minutes." And, much as we are loth to detract from a renown in which all Americans are to some extent participants, yet it must be admitted that "G. W." is inferentially sustained and corroborated by the statements of the reputed inventor himself. For, as we learn from Prof. Morse's remarks, at the grand banquet given him by the artists of New York, Dec. 29th, 1868, the idea of the magnetic Telegraph first occurred to him while on a voyage from France to the United States, in 1832.

Now, considering the fact that Young, in his history of France, published over thirty years before Morse visited Paris, gives a detailed description of the mechanism and actual operation of Mons. Lemond's Telegraph, as seen by him in 1787, is it not a possible conjecture that the shrewd Yankee drew his sudden inspiration, not from the heavens above, or the salt water beneath, but rather from descriptions, and perhaps a model of the French mechanic's invention?

RAS.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT.—The President has just got through with what it is hoped will be the last case of a barbarous practice in the military service. A private in a cavalry regiment stationed in California was recently found guilty of desertion. The sentence of the military commission that tried him was, that with a hot iron the letter D should be branded on the prisoner's left hip, the brand to be one inch and a half long, etc; that he should be imprisoned two years on Sitka Island, with ball and chain to his ankle, etc. In time of peace, especially this custom of branding with hot iron has been severely condemned by some of the best officers in the service, yet it is continued as a mode of punishment in the army. The President has remitted the branding part of the sentence, and directed that the prisoner be confined for one year at Fort Point, near San Francisco.

The carpet-bag members of Congress from Georgia will probably lose their seats before long. The Reconstruction Committee will doubtless report that they have no business in the House. But how is the Government to recover the money which has been paid to these vagabond congressmen? Georgia has committed the offence unpardonable in Radical eye, of excluding negroes from the halls of her Legislature; and the carpet-baggers and scallawags must take up their carpet-bags and walk. We shall be pleased to learn that they haven't money enough to pay their way back to Georgia. No doubt some of them will go home instead of to that place.

And now Georgia is to be reconstructed over again. Was there ever such a farce as Congress makes of this matter of reconstruction?—Dispatch.

We regard the project of holding an Agricultural Fair in this city during the coming Fall as no longer a question of doubt. The gratifying success of the meeting of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, and the determination expressed by the members settles this matter beyond dispute. Let the Committee who have the subject in charge procure at once a suitable site, and we have no hesitation in promising that the requisite amount to provide the necessary buildings and improvements can be raised in our city.—Wilmington Journal.

ALLEGED ILLNESS OF BRIGHAM YOUNG.—A Salt Lake dispatch to a San Francisco paper says that Brigham Young has been attacked by apoplexy. It adds: The prophet was stricken down in his private office, and it was some time before assistance could be rendered him, from the fact that the serious mishap was not known to the clerks in the outer room. He was immediately conveyed to his residence, and is now lying on a couch surrounded by his family. He has rallied once since the attack, and it is thought that he will survive—this being the first of the usual series of three attacks, the last one proving fatal."

FILLIBUSTERING.—It is reported that a secret organization, called the "Grand Army of Palestine," is now in course of formation in New York city. The object of the association is to unite with any power that may make war upon Turkey, and to aid in driving the followers of Mahommed back into Central Asia. Not only Southeastern Europe but Asia Minor is to be cleared of the Turks. The organization in New York comprises Russians and Greeks principally, but natives of other European countries are enlisted in the enterprise.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN,
Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; genuine merit alone not always appreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which renders it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

WASHINGTON, Feb 2, M.

The Chronicle has a powerful editorial urging Congress to restore Col. Blanton Duncans property. The bill was tabled in the House and its stated misapprehensions of facts, upon the call of yeas and nays it was a tie. Three members changed front however, and defeated the bill. It is now revived in the Senate and will probably pass both Houses without difficulty. The importance attached to this case, as indicative of the temper of Congress, in the matter of restoring confiscated property.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2, P. M.

Joseph Segar, a well-known Virginian, has the malignant Erysipelas.

A Bill was introduced, in the Senate, advancing pay to Army officers under Major Generals, for two years from July 1866, one third.

The Reconstruction Committee considers the Mississippi case finally on Saturday.

The College Buildings at Adrain, Michigan, has been destroyed.

Among the visitors to the President, to-night, were Messrs. Myers, Cohen, Jones, Gibbes, Gardner and W. J. Brenner, of Augusta, Georgia.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2, P. M.

HOUSE.—A resolution was offered directing the Secretary of the Treasury, to withhold the bonds from the beneficiary railroads, sufficient to secure the construction of a first-class road.

The Secretary of War interrogated whether any District Commander has turned over to the civil authority, for trial or punishment, any person tried and convicted by military tribunals.

The pensions were considered, with an amendment that no widow by marriage, shall forfeit the pension.

A bill was reported, establishing a bridge between New York and Brooklyn. A long debate ensued. Finally, with an amendment that the bridge should not obstruct navigation, the bill passed.

A message was received from the President, covering a correspondence regarding Fenian imprisonment by England.

Robinson said that he would kick any man into the middle of next week, who talked about a treaty with England until imprisoned Americans were liberated.

The correspondence was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

The Senate amendment to the bill declaring vacant offices held by disqualified persons passed. It now goes to the President. The bill provides for the removal within thirty days after its passage, officers ineligible under the fourteenth amendment in Virginia, Mississippi and Texas.

The House then adjourned.

SENATE.—The Judiciary Committee was discharged from the further considerations of female suffrage petitions.

Wilson introduced the Constitutional amendment assuring suffrage and offices to all except rebels.

Appropriations were considered at great length, after which the Senate adjourned.

THE ONLY BRANCH OFFICE OF LIFE INSURANCE IN THIS SECTION WHERE POLICIES ARE ISSUED AND LOSSES PAID.

ASSETS NEARLY

ANNUAL INCOME NEARLY

$3,000,000.

Annual Dividends nearly 50 per cent.

$73,500 LOSSES PAID BY THE SOUTHERN BRANCH IN TWO YEARS.

THE KNICKERBOCKER IS AN OLD, RELIABLE Company, and offers as great inducements to insurers as any solvent Company can. Issues Policies on every desirable plan. Loans one-third of Premium to Policy-Holder.

All Policies non-forfeitable, as the insured can at any time, on demand, get its surrender value.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON RESIDENCE OR TRAVEL.

NO EXTRA CHARGE for OFFICERS of the ARMY or NAVY, Officers of first-class Steam or Sail Vessels, or Railroad Conductors, &c.

The "KNICKERBOCKER" is ONE of the TWO Northern Companies whose Policies in the South were kept intact during the entire Rebellion, whose Dividends were accredited to Policy Holders as though Premiums were paid.

And is THE Company that paid all losses after the war, that incurred during the war, thus proving its integrity, the honorable method of conducting its business, and its indisputable solvency.

The KNICKERBOCKER still pays all losses, never disputes a just claim, and is as liberal and SAFE as any Company in America.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

EXCELSIOR! ÆTNA!

Another Loss Paid. Dec. 23, 1868.

$5,000.

"Received of the ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, at the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, payment in full for my deceased husband's policy, No. 43,681, amounting to $5,000 dated 16th November, 1867.

Mrs. BETTIE E BARNETT,

Smithfield, N. C."

ALL THE COST of the above was $59 85. The assets of the Company are now

$11,000,000,

Ample guarantee for future losses. And with all the peculiar advantages proposed by rivals, none have ever yet done better, for the living or the departed, than this old and well tried Institution.

The ÆTNA is not before the American people as under bidder for subjects. Her standard is as liberal and fair as possible for the security and safety of all, who wish to be gainers in the end.

Persons contemplating an investment will find it to their interest to call on the subscriber, or any of his agents.

W. H. CROW,

General State Agent,

I HAVE, THIS DAY associated with me my son, JOHN S. PESCUD, and the Drug business hereafter will be conducted under the firm of

P. F. PESCUD & SON.

The CASH PLAN will BE STRICTLY OBSERVED.—We must have the cash or an equivalent on delivery of goods.

The Senior partner returns his thanks to his friends, and the public generally, for their generous support for the past 25 years and hopes it will be continued to the new firm who will use their utmost exertions to merit and share increased patronage.

All indebted will please pay up this month, as my old business must be closed speedily.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? so let them talk, puff and blow, but srow. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support.

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at H. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in the State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.
